Re: Starr Indemnity & Liability Company v. Brightstar Corp., et al.,
1:13-cv-08580-GWG (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Gorenstein,

In the above-referenced action, this firm represents defendants Brightstar Corp. & Brightstar Germany GmbH (collectively, "Brightstar"), along with the law firms Barnes & Thornburg LLP and Quintairos, Prieto, Wood & Boyer P.A. Pursuant to Rule 1(E) of the Court's Individual Practices, Brightstar writes to respectfully request an extension of time, to and including August 9, 2019, within which to file any motion for reconsideration of the Court's opinion and order dated July 12, 2019.

In light of Local Civil Rule 6.3, this request would be an extension of 14 days. Brightstar considers this additional time necessary, particularly given the volume of the six underlying briefs and the time since such briefing concluded in July 2018. Neither party has previously sought an extension of the deadline at issue. And Starr Indemnity & Liability Company has advised that it does not oppose this request.

Granted.

Respectfully submitted,

SO ORDERED: DATE: 7/18/19
